

GL Bajaj Academic Calendar 2026–27 — Easy-to-Read RAG Version

Chronological wording intended to remain understandable when read aloud and easy for retrieval to match with date, holiday, class, and exam questions.

How to use this calendar

Think of this document as a timeline. Each date below says what happens on that date.

Red or listed non-working dates mean there is no regular class. Blue or tentative dates are exam or test dates that are not confirmed final dates.

Do not invent a holiday, class cancellation, or confirmed exam date that is not stated in the calendar.

July 2026

July 4: Saturday off.

July 18: Saturday off.

July 20: Classes commence.

August 2026

August 1: Saturday off.

August 15: Independence Day.

August 29: Saturday off.

August 28: Rakshabandhan.

September 2026

September 4: Shri Krishna Janmastmi.

September 5: Saturday off.

September 7 to September 12: ST-1, tentative.

September 19: Saturday off.

October 2026

October 2: Gandhi Jayanti.

October 3: Saturday off.

October 17: Saturday off.

October 20: Dushera.

November 2026

November 6 to November 10: Diwali.

November 14: Saturday off.

November 16 to November 21: PUT, tentative.

November 24: Guru Nanak Dev Birthday.

November 24 to December 27: End Semester University Examination, marked tentative and subject to final AKTU/university notification.

December 2026

December 5: Saturday off.

December 19: Saturday off.

December 25: Christmas Day.

November 24 to December 27: End Semester University Examination continues, as listed in the calendar.

Attendance

The calendar states a minimum 75 percent attendance requirement for exams and tests.

Source

GL Bajaj Institute of Technology and Management, Academic Calendar, Odd Semester, Session 2026–27.